Election/Restriction

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-9, 32-36, 49-52, and 71-73, drawn to a primary scheduling module used to request and tentatively schedule a series of reoccurring delivery vehicle visits, classified in class 705, subclass 8.
 - II. Claims 10-31, 37-48, 53-60, and 75-78, drawn to a secondary scheduling module used to firmly schedule each tentatively scheduled delivery vehicle visit, classified in class 705, subclass 8.
 - III. Claims 61-70 and 74, drawn to a scheduling module used to schedule both pick-up and delivery vehicle visits based on lag time between visits, classified in class 705, subclass 8.

2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the combination (Invention I) does not require the details of how the periodic series of delivery visits is scheduled. The subcombination (Invention II) has separate utility such as scheduling a periodic series of appointments, e.g., with a doctor, without assessing economic desirability of scheduling the first appointment.

Inventions I and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention III has separate utility such as scheduling drop-off and pick-up times for a repair service. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Inventions II and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention III has separate utility such as scheduling drop-off and pick-up times for a repair service. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group II or Group III, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group II is not required for Group I or Group III, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group III is not required for Group I or Group II, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. A telephone call was not attempted because the requirement for restriction is complex. See MPEP § 812.01.

5. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
